

SFT®: The folding door with speed, power and reliability

EFAFLEX high-speed folding doors offer contemporary design and first-class durability even after hundreds of cycles each day. The basis of the design, our folding mechanism has been matured to perfection, ensuring elegant free-flowing operation – no waiting, and no need for unsightly floor channels. With numerous options of wing infill the door can be tailored to meet the aesthetics of any building.

Drive system

- Electric central drive in the top cover
- Optional pneumatic drive

Control EFA-TRONIC®

- Externally mounted polycarbonate control box
- Integrated frequency converter

Door Wings

- Aluminium frame with cardan jointing
- SFT-THERM infill with 40mm thick insulated laths
- Optional triple glazing available as transparent infill
- Further infill options include transparent single-walled glazing or perforated sheet metal with finish acc. to RAL colours

Finish

- Galvanised or powder coating acc. to RAL

Safety

- Photo cell combined with contact edge

Manual release

- Simple manual opening using release handle

General

- Door opening speed up to 2,0m/sec.
- Max. sizes W = 8,000 mm x H = 6,000 mm
- Designed for 150,000 – 200,000 cycles per year (depending on design)

